

ACTION  CANADA

Action Canada Fellows, in partnership with MaRS Discovery District, present...

High Growth Entrepreneurship in Canada: Fuelling our Economic Success

A dialogue with
The Honourable John Manley, P.C., O.C.,
President and CEO, Canadian Council of Chief Executives

Dr. Ilse Treurnicht, CEO, MaRS Discovery District

and a panel of esteemed entrepreneurs

Dr. H. Douglas Barber, O.C., founder, Gennum Corp.
Michael Worry, CEO, Nuvation Engineering, Silicon Valley
Mike Volker, 2009 Canadian Angel Investor of the Year

Moderated by Jacquie McNish, Senior Writer, The Globe & Mail

Friday, January 14, 2011 from 11:45 AM - 2:00 PM (Reception to follow)

TMX Broadcast Centre

130 King Street West

Toronto, Ontario

Space is limited. Register now!

Entrepreneurship, particularly the high-growth variety, is a proven driver of rapid job creation, GDP growth, and long-term increases in innovation and productivity. As Canada seeks to compete to win in a global economy, Action Canada Fellows invite you to join policy and industry leaders for an exclusive dialogue that will explore how Canada can create a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem that fuels the growth of globally competitive Canadian enterprises.

www.CanadianGazelles.ca

Email: gazelles@actioncanada.ca

*This project has been undertaken pursuant to an Action Canada fellowship.
Action Canada Foundation, doing business as Action Canada, is a registered charity with a mandate to build leadership for Canada's future.*

Learn more: www.actioncanada.ca